Waldo County Commissioners to Implement New Waldo County Logo

[June 29, 2009] — The Waldo County Commissioners will soon be implementing a new County logo created specifically for the County of Waldo Commissioners Office. In keeping with other Maine Counties, the Waldo County Commissioners felt it was important to have a logo that represents and reflects distinctive features of Waldo County. To encourage community input and draw from local talent, students enrolled in Waldo County area high schools and the local vocational school were invited to enter a contest to design a new logo for the Waldo County Commissioners Office for an award of $100.00. Numerous submissions were received and the design selected by the Commissioners was submitted by Erica Koenig, an art student at the Waldo County Technical Institute located in the Town of Waldo. Ms. Koenig was invited to attend the May 19, 2009 Waldo County Commissioners Court Session to meet the County Commissioners and receive the $100.00 check for her prize-winning entry.

“We are pleased and excited to be able to introduce our new logo in the 2008 Annual Report and also at the Maine County Commissioners Association annual convention, which is being hosted by Waldo County this year,” commented Board of Waldo County Commissioners Chairman Donald P. Berry, Sr., District 1. The event is being held September 11-13, 2009 at the Point Lookout Resort and Conference Center in Northport Maine.

District 3 County Commissioner Amy R. Fowler, actively involved on the Planning Committee for the upcoming convention added, “We plan to use the logo on donated tote bags given to each delegate attending the annual convention this year.”

The logo, which depicts the coastline of Waldo County and the silhouette of a pine tree, was chosen by the Commissioners during their April 13, 2009 County Commissioners Court Session and will first be utilized in the 2008 Waldo County Annual Report, which is slated for release by August. The logo will also be gradually incorporated into the Waldo County website and will be used on the Waldo County Commissioners’ letterhead stationery
